

whether or not the production would be put on to-day without Mrs. Thaw. The Index-Appel reported last night that the company appeared in Petersburg before one of the largest audiences of the season, and that the show was big enough without Mrs. Thaw in the cast. She, however, has no speaking part. The company played at Bristol on Friday night and at Staunton on Saturday night. The Charlottesville date was canceled when it was found that there would be opposition.

HISTORIC SESSION OF PARLIAMENT

Victorious Conclusion of Fight to Give Self-Government to Ireland Expected.

London, February 10.—King George, with the customary state ceremonial, to-day opened the historic session of Parliament which, according to all reasonable probability, will see the victorious conclusion of the thirty years' struggle of the Liberal party to give self-government to Ireland. The home rule bill, which will be presented in the House of Commons for the third time, will, if carried, receive the royal assent, with or without the consent of the House of Lords.

Whether the bill will pass as it stands or whether it will be amended to meet the wishes of Ulster, will depend on the nature of concessions which the Prime Minister announced he would make in behalf of the government.

The King's speech expressed the earnest desire of His Majesty to attain a settlement by consent, and this desire was echoed fervently by Premier Asquith and Lord Morley, small hope was felt in the lobbies of Parliament to-night that the settlement of the home rule question would be reached by consent.

The ministers' attitude clearly shows that the government neither will consent to an appeal to the country nor accept a solution based on the exclusion of Ulster from the operation of the bill.

The Right Hon. Austen Chamberlain just as clearly indicated that the opposition will accept nothing less than the exclusion of Ulster, unless the government agrees to an appeal to the country. He declared in his speech in the House of Commons that it would be useless for the government to offer less than the exclusion of Ulster. Civil war was certain if Ulster was not excluded.

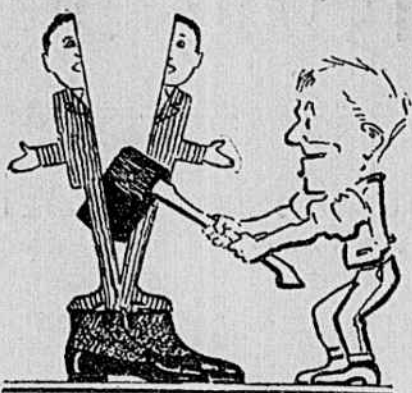

It is evident, however, that the threatened crisis has been postponed for several weeks.

Premier Asquith declines to divulge the proposed concessions, but the ground that the opposition would use that knowledge as a lever to get still greater concessions. Apparently the government's proposal will be something in the nature of Sir Horace Plunkett's plan.

Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster Unionist leader, referring in the lobby to the Premier's speech, said: "It carries us no farther; it simply is marking time. There is nothing in it that should induce the Ulster convention to relax their preparations for resisting home rule."

Other speakers expressed strong disapproval of Sir Horace Plunkett's suggestion that Ulster should consent to some union with the rest of the country of passing out after a certain number of years.

of the matters to be discussed will be: Amendment of the interstate trade commission bill to extend the powers of the proposed body somewhat, but without referring any administrative majority; also to exclude from public utility trade secrets and lists of customers required to be furnished by corporations.

A bill or an amendment to the trade relations measure to regulate holding companies and to prevent holding companies from acquiring control of corporations and defining restraints of trade under the Sherman act.

Opposition to Bill.
Since hearing began before House committees on the trust bills there has been considerable opposition expressed to the Sherman law definition of a trust. It has been argued by several business men and also by members of Congress that specifically defined various acts as in restraint of trade, would weaken instead of strengthen the Sherman law.

Amendments to the tentative bills designed to prevent interlocking directorates and defining restraints of trade under the Sherman act.

To Prepare Primary Bill.
Washington, February 10.—Preparation of a presidential primary bill as advocated by President Wilson will be begun at once, Chairman Rucker, of the House Elections Committee, to-day announced.

Representative Rucker has an engagement with the President to-morrow, and it is expected that actual writing of the primary measure will almost immediately be begun.

MAXIMO CASTILLO REPORTED CAUGHT

Bandit Responsible for Tunnel Disaster and His Band Captured on Ranch.

VILLA HOPES STORY IS TRUE

Says He Will Bring Prisoners to Juarez and Have Them Publicly Executed.

El Paso, Texas, February 10.—A dispatch to the Times from a staff correspondent at Cuernavaca to-night carries the report that Maximo Castillo, the bandit held responsible for the Cuernavaca tunnel disaster, and the remainder of his band have been captured.

The capture is said to have been made at Gahulla ranch, a few miles east of Cuernavaca. It is reported that the prisoners will be taken to Cuernavaca.

Will Be Publicly Executed.
Juarez, February 10.—In the absence of the official dispatches, General Francisco Villa to-night said he hoped the newspaper report of the capture of the bandit Castillo was correct. If it proved true, he said, he would bring the prisoners to Juarez and have them publicly executed.

"Every Mexican and every American will be invited to attend the execution," he said. "I feel a great responsibility, because I had given Americans my promise that they would be protected. Having failed in this particular instance, I want to vindicate myself by wiping out the bandits who slaughtered forty-one innocent persons."

No Bodies Found.
Cuernavaca, Chihuahua, Mex., February 10.—Working from the south end of Cuernavaca tunnel to-day explorers traversed the length of the burned passenger train, but no bodies were found, as the wreck itself is buried in earth.

Fragments of bones were picked up. A powder puff, intact in its metal box, a purse and the clasp of a large one-piece coat were found. The property of Mrs. Lee Carruth, who perished, also were found.

The north portal still is behind a wall of earth. Guards have been established at both portals to prevent attempts of hysterical persons to enter in search of relatives.

Will Be Guided by American.
Washington, February 10.—With Thomas B. Hohler, secretary of the British legation in Mexico City, now in Washington, and Sir Lionel Carden, the retiring British minister to Mexico, about to visit the city, it is believed here that all concerned will understand hereafter the British government's intention to be guided by American developments in the American policy toward Mexico.

Sir Lionel Carden's visit is expected by his friends to clear up misapprehensions as to his attitude toward the Huerta government, and it is suggested, too, that he can tell much concerning recent events in Mexico City that is not known to American Charge d'Affaires, because of the latter's peculiar diplomatic status.

More important in its results than Sir Lionel's visit is expected to be the conference which Mr. Hohler is holding with various officials in Washington. The British diplomat has had it impressed on him that any settlement of the Mexican trouble is barred unless it does not involve the complete elimination of General Huerta as a factor in Mexican politics, and he will carry this news to Mexico City when he goes there in the next week or ten days.

SEVEN WONDERS OF WORLD.

Large Proportion of Replies Heads List With Panama Canal.
[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] Berlin, February 10.—Lokal-Anzeiger, the publication which recently invited its readers to name the seven wonders of the modern world, publishes the results to-day. A large proportion of those replying headed their list with the Panama Canal. The prize-winning list, as determined by the majority of votes cast follows:

Wireless telegraphy, Panama Canal, dirigible airships, aeroplane, automobile, cinematograph, steamship imperator.

Defense Needs Only One Day.
Boston, February 10.—Attorneys for the United Shoe Machinery Company to-day announced that a large proportion of the government's dissolution suit that only one day would be required to present the defense's case in rebuttal.

SWEDISH CABINET RESIGNS TO KING

Result of Differences of Opinion Between Its Members and the Sovereign.

Stockholm, Sweden, February 10.—The Swedish Cabinet, of which Carl Albert Stenroos was Premier, to-day resigned, and King Gustave summoned Baron Gerard Louis de Geer to form a new Cabinet. The resignation was the result of differences of opinion between its members and the King, as to the sovereign's right to give free expression publicly to his opinion in political matters, without previously consulting the ministers.

The Cabinet held that as a constitutional monarch, the King should not make political speeches without ascertaining beforehand if the Cabinet approved their substance. The King refused to submit to such restraint. This has been made clear by the publication of caustic correspondence between the King and the Cabinet, after the King's speech to 30,000 peasants, who held a demonstration a few days ago, demanding an increase of Swedish armaments.

The Cabinet sent to the King a communication, in which his attention was called to an extract from his speech, as follows:

"The demands for preparedness for war as regards the army, which are put forward by military experts, it will not be abandoned. I am, therefore, commenting on this, the communication of the defense system of Sweden, based on recommendation of the defense communication, and adding: 'But considering the far-reaching claims of the military authorities, it is safe to anticipate that proposals the Cabinet will ask the majority to submit to Parliament hardly will come up to all those claims, and we may say that if they do, some certainly would have no chance of being passed by Parliament.'"

Stork and Cupid Cunning Plotters

Many a New Home will Have a Little Sunbeam to Brighten It.

There is some dread in every woman's mind as to the probable pain, distress and danger of child-birth.

But, thanks to a remarkable remedy known as Mother's Friend, the period is one of joyful anticipation. It makes the muscles of the stomach and abdomen relax, and thus the pain is naturally without pain, and with none of that peculiar nausea, nervousness and other symptoms that tend to weaken the prospective mother. Thus Cupid and the stork are rated as cunning plotters to herald the coming of a little sunbeam to gladden the hearts and homes.

Thousands of women know from experience that Mother's Friend is one of our greatest remedies for the relief of all the troubles connected with child-birth. Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Especially recommended as a preventive of cake-breast.

Class F includes every widow of any soldier, sailor or marine of the Confederate States, whose husband was loyal and true during the war, and has since died, who is now a widow, though she may have married again. The pension is $35 per annum.

Class G provides for every pensioner who served in the Confederate States, a pension of $40 per annum.

Class H provides for the personal representatives of deceased pensioners, as described in the act, an allowance for funeral expenses of $25.

The act applies to every citizen of Virginia who was a resident of the State on April 1, 1861, and to widows of such; and to the soldiers, sailors and marines of other States composing the Confederate States, that allow pensions to former citizens of Virginia, who were in service, who have been pensioned by the United States, or from the United States, or who is an inmate of a soldiers' home, shall have the same rights and privileges as residents of Virginia for the past five years. No person holding a national, State, county or city office, which pays in salary or fees as much as $200 per annum, or whose income from any source, whatever, is $200 per annum, or who receives from any source whatever money or other means of support amounting in value to $200 per annum, shall be eligible for pension under the act.

No May Be Pensioned.
No pension shall be paid under this act to any soldier, sailor or marine or to the widow of any soldier, sailor or marine who deserted his command or voluntarily abandoned his post of duty or the service during the war, nor shall any pension be paid to any widow who shall have been married to another man after May 1, 1865, nor to any widow, if she have a husband living at the time of application for pension, or who shall hereafter marry; nor to any widow who has been divorced from or abandoned by her husband, nor to any soldier, sailor or marine who served as substitute for another, nor to any person who served only in the militia of the State.

MRS. PANKHURST DUES POLICE.

Challenges Government to Subject Her to Forcible Feeding.
[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] London, February 10.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the suffragette leader, who returned from the Continent to-day, was the cause of a small riot this evening, and, but for the fact that she duped the police, she would now be in prison.

Mrs. Pankhurst addressed a few hundred persons from an upper window of the house where she is stopping in Campden Hill Square.

She challenged the government to subject her to forcible feeding, adding: "I am coming out to you in a few minutes."

Shortly afterward a woman who closely resembled Mrs. Pankhurst left the house, and the police moved forward to arrest her. The disguise of the woman who left the house was so good that the suffragettes in the crowd shared the delusion that it was Mrs. Pankhurst.

Finally, the police, who were much bruised and scratched, took their prisoner to the police station, only to find that they had been hoaxed, and that the woman was not Mrs. Pankhurst.

"Yes, daughter, that's FINE for SPRAINS"
You've only put it on twice, and the pain's all gone, and my arm's 'bout as well as ever. I sure never saw anything so quick as Sloan's.
So say thousands of others who have used Sloan's Liniment for many years for burns, scalds, cuts and sprains.
Helped Her Knee
Mrs. T. E. Williams, of Chicago, writes: "I slipped and sprained my knee, and at four o'clock could not hold a pencil in my hand. At five o'clock I purchased a bottle of your Liniment, used it five or six times before I went to bed, and the next day I was able to use my hand as usual."
A Quick Improvement
Mr. L. Roland Bishop, of Scranton, Pa., writes: "As I was leaving my office for lunch, I slipped and sprained my wrist, and at four o'clock could not hold a pencil in my hand. At five o'clock I purchased a bottle of your Liniment, used it five or six times before I went to bed, and the next day I was able to use my hand as usual."
Best for Sprained Wrist
Miss H. S. Spokesfield, of Lawrence, Mass., writes: "The other day I called on my neighbor, a beautiful woman, who had fallen upstairs and sprained her wrist. I asked her what she was doing for it, and she said she was using Sloan's. I bought a bottle of Sloan's Liniment, and it did me lots of good."
